Lost, yesterday, amidst a vast complexity
Nowhere to go, aimlessly lost.

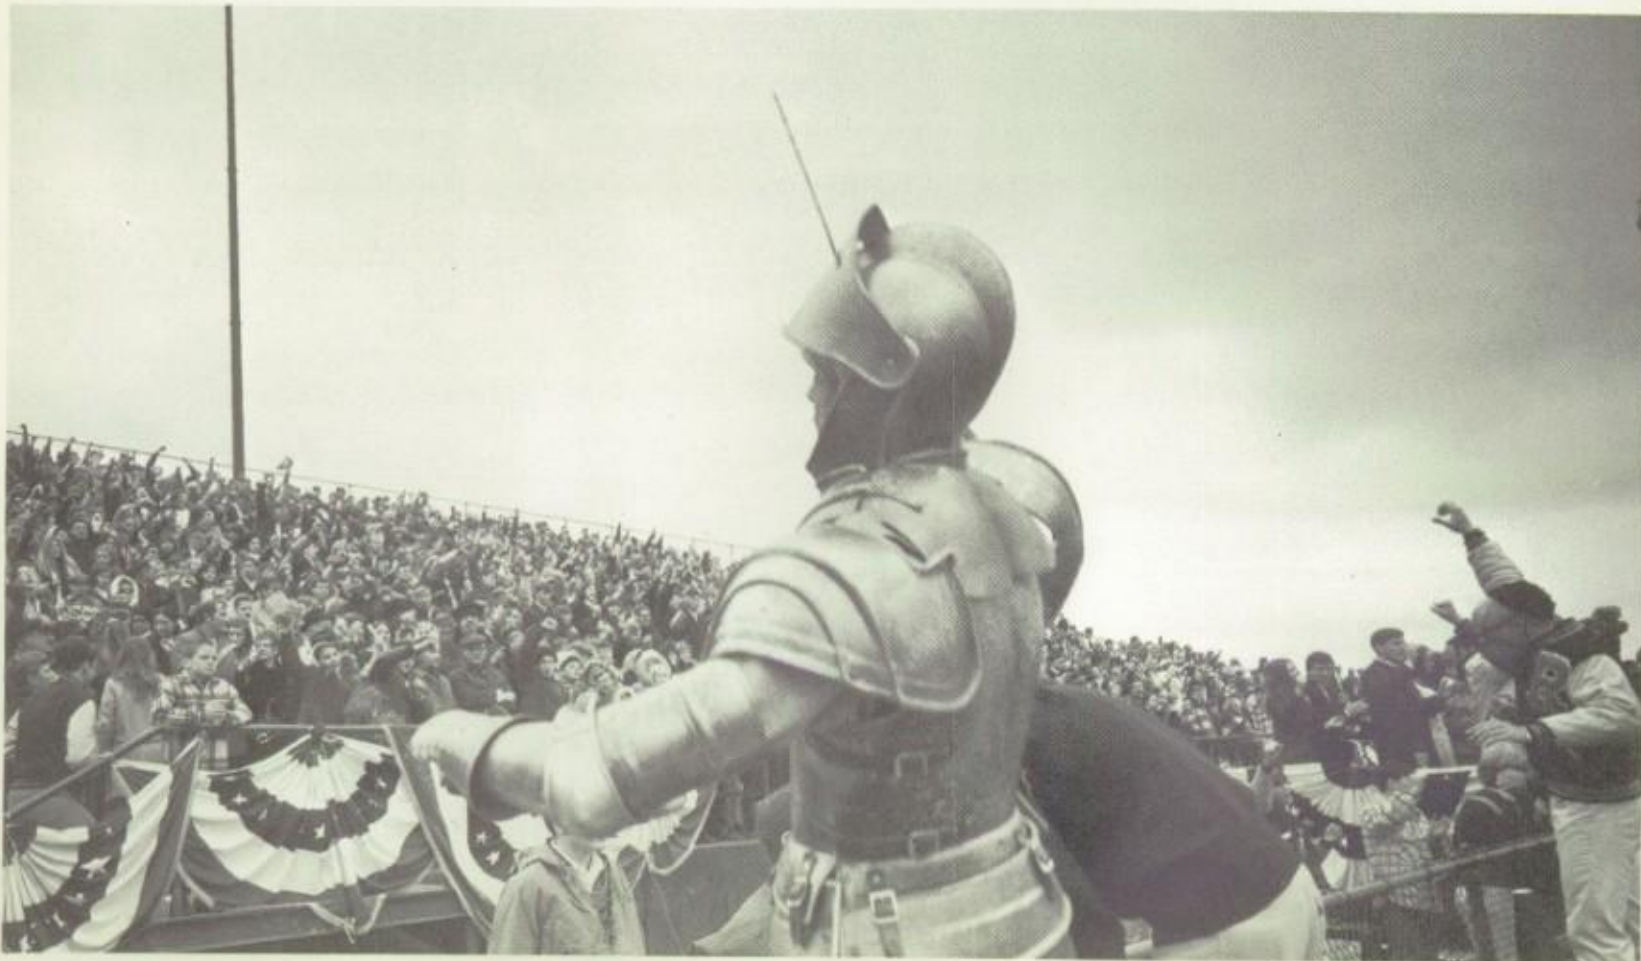

Today, that changed,
everywhere to go.
Developing abilities never challenged . . .

Accomplishing things never done,
And, endlessly, striving to do more.

Like discovering yourself,
And people
rather than acquaintances.

Becoming more aware of a world around you.

Ready to leave and confront tomorrow . . .

. . . but a bit sorry that you have to leave it all behind.

COACH TOM MITCHELL

Coach Thomas Mitchell has been head coach at Brother Rice for two years and has compiled a 22-7 record. He came to Brother Rice in 1966. For the first two years he served as backfield coach under Coach Flynn. In 1968 he took over as head coach where he has given Rice fans three fine years and hopefully many more.

Coach Joe Johnston has been a fixture at Brother Rice for many years. He is a graduate of Leo High School, where he played football. His first coaching experience came at St. Rita under Frank Mannott where he served as a line coach. After two years at Rita, Coach Johnston moved to Leo, where he served as frosh and varsity line coach.

After five seasons Coach returned to college to receive his B.A. degree. It was after this achievement that he came to Brother Rice in 1957. He has served under three coaches to date: Nick Adducci, Bill Flynn, and Tom Mitchell. But after coaching all these years Coach Johnston received his highest honor when inducted into the Catholic League Hall of Fame on May 6, 1970. In typical Coach Johnston fashion he remarked that his greatest satisfaction over all these years came when he was asked to teach religion here at Brother Rice. Coach did point to the 38-20 victory over Loyola as one of the biggest football thrills. He pointed to first Rice captain, John Meyer, and to last year's captain, Tom Coyle, as two of the finest men that he has met.

The Catholic League Hall of Fame should be honored to have a man like Coach Johnston among its ranks.

COACH JOE JOHNSTON

According to Coach Tom Mitchell and his assistant Joe Johnston, this year's Crusaders were not especially talented. Thus, the impressive 6-4 season record can be attributed to determination and speedy, hustling play. The team had fine success in gaining a playoff berth for the fifth consecutive year.

The defense, led by Co-Capt. Dan Flynn, had its finest game against Loyola, when a fluke play resulted in Loyola's only offensive touchdown. This year's defense included lineman Ed Keeley, Jerry Connors, Jack O'Leary, George Scully, and Jack Coyle, linebackers Flynn and Dan Broderick, and backs Rich Flanagan, Mike Long, Chris Leahy, and Carl Oberzut.

This year's offense, one of Rice's strongest ever, had many fine games. Led by co-captains Bob Demes and Larry Roth, it included guards Tom O'Hara and Bill Hunt, Center Larry Casey, tackles Bob Hubbard and Mike DuBois, ends Neil Locke and Rick Leamy, and back Tom Pautsch.

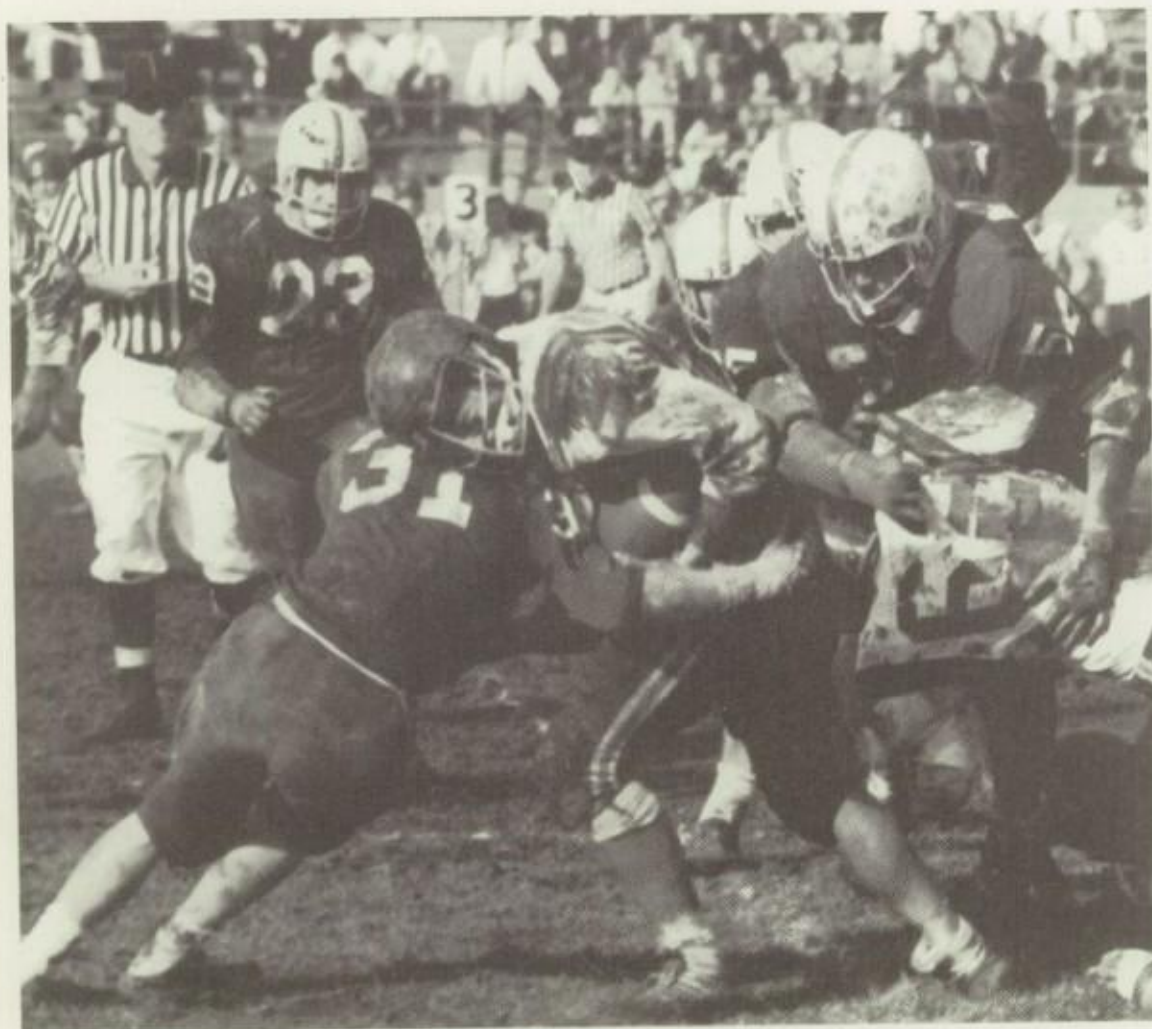

The highlight of this year's season came in the St. Rita game, when Rice was behind three times and still came back to win. Coaches called the best team effort the second Fenwick game, because few mistakes were made by neither offense nor defense.

Against Loyola, Rice had a fine game, beating the City Champs in every statistical department except for the score. Rice's defense was fantastic, only allowing one score, and the offense moved well but wasn't able to cross the goal line.

Big factors in Rice's second place finish were All-North Section selection Jack Coyle, All-Catholic League Tom O'Hara, and All-Catholic, All-State selection Bob Demes. The season was topped off at the Fall Sports Banquet, where awards were given to Most Valuable Lineman Jack Coyle and Most Valuable Back Bob Demes.

The 1969 J-V and Freshman football teams both enjoyed fine seasons. The Freshman team went undefeated while the J-V's expect to supply key personnel to next year's varsity. Ed Tunney, Mark Cooney, Jim Minicino, and John Trojan are all top prospects. Freshman standouts were Jerry Szara, Dave Ruzich, Rich Cunningham, and Most Valuable Player and star back Sylvester O'Dell.

Cross Country

Once again through hard work, determination, and the guidance of Coach Burt, the varsity cross country runners came up with good performances. Faced with the stiff competition of the Catholic League, Rice's team managed to win the South Section Championship and to finish as runner-up in the Catholic League City Championship. Coach Burt commented that this year was an excellent season.

The Cross Country Team was captained by Bob York and Jack Murphy. Behind these two seniors the team turned in a fine dual meet record of 13 wins and 1 loss; the one loss coming to the city champion Gordon Tech. The highlight of the season and a credit to the whole team was the first place victory in the South Section Meet. In this meet Bob York finished a strong first and topped off his high school career with a third place finish in the city meet. The rest of the top harriers included seniors Jack Murphy, Rich Cygan, and Joe Meyer, and juniors Rich Manion, Bob McHugh, and Phil Stanko.

COACH BURT

One element which makes the Junior Cross Country Team an exciting division of the Catholic League is the new and encouraging talent that appears every year. Freshmen receive their first taste of competition in running and many times develop deep rivalries with members of other cross country teams. These rivalries many times last for the ensuing four years. This year's team was no different than the rest. It was led by freshman Bob McDonough, Joe Gallagher, Ken Zewilinski, and John Herman.

Through hard work and determination the junior varsity team was able to duplicate the feat of the senior varsity and capture the South Section Catholic League Championship. From this victory the young harriers went out and captured a third place in the Championship Meet for the Catholic League.

It is certainly with hope that Rice fans can look to the future of the cross-country team.

This year's water polo team turned in one of the finest performances ever. They lost none of their pre-season or regular season games, and bowed only twice to Fenwick during championship competition. Led by captain Hugh McKinnon, the Crusaders emerged victorious and won their fourth consecutive city championship. Some of the members of the team credited for this fine record were Mark Holmes, deep end goalie, Jim Karel, shallow end goalie, and field players Hugh McKinnon, Mike Meuris, Tom Barry, Felix Kirkpatrick, Al Coyne, and Charles Cody. Three returning Catholic League all-stars, Mike Meuris, Jim Karel, and Hugh McKinnon, along with returning All-American Tom Barry helped guide the team to victory. Coaches "Moose" Mulchrone and Brother Joyce, certainly deserved much credit for the team's fine effort.

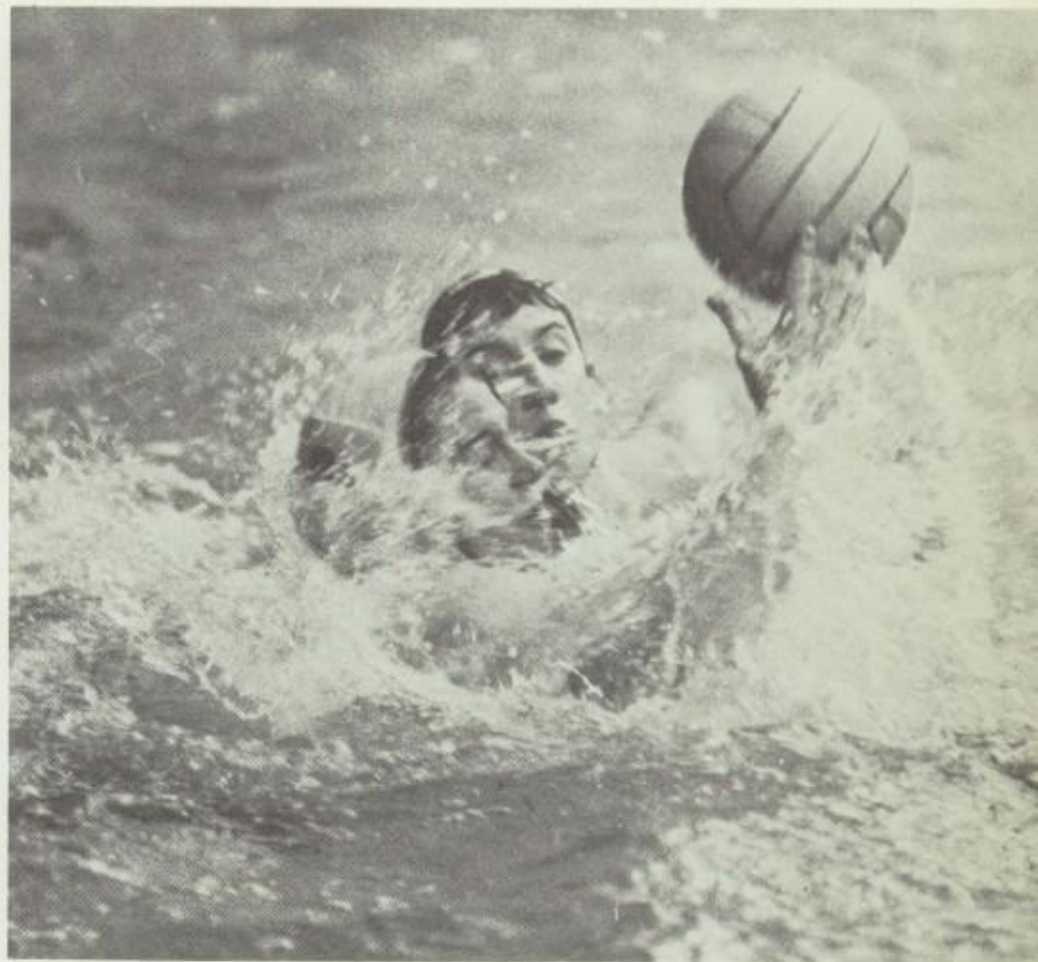

Four members of this year's team were selected at the end of the year as All-Americans for the year 1970. The four were: Tom Barry, Jim Karel, Hugh McKinnon and Mike Meuris.

Swimming

This year's swimming team turned in another fine performance as has been the tradition for the past several years. Led by captain Hugh MacKinnon the team finished third out of eight teams involved in the Catholic League City Championship competition. Some of the most noted members of this year's young team were Mike Meuris in the 50 meter freestyle and backstroke; Hugh MacKinnon in the 200 meter and 400 meter; Tom Barry in the individual medley; and Mark Holmes in the breast-stroke.

Mike Meuris was voted the most valuable senior swimmer while Bob Murphy was voted the most improved senior swimmer. Meuris capped off his high school career by breaking two Brother Rice swim team records. In the junior division Bob Murphy was voted as the most valuable junior swimmer.

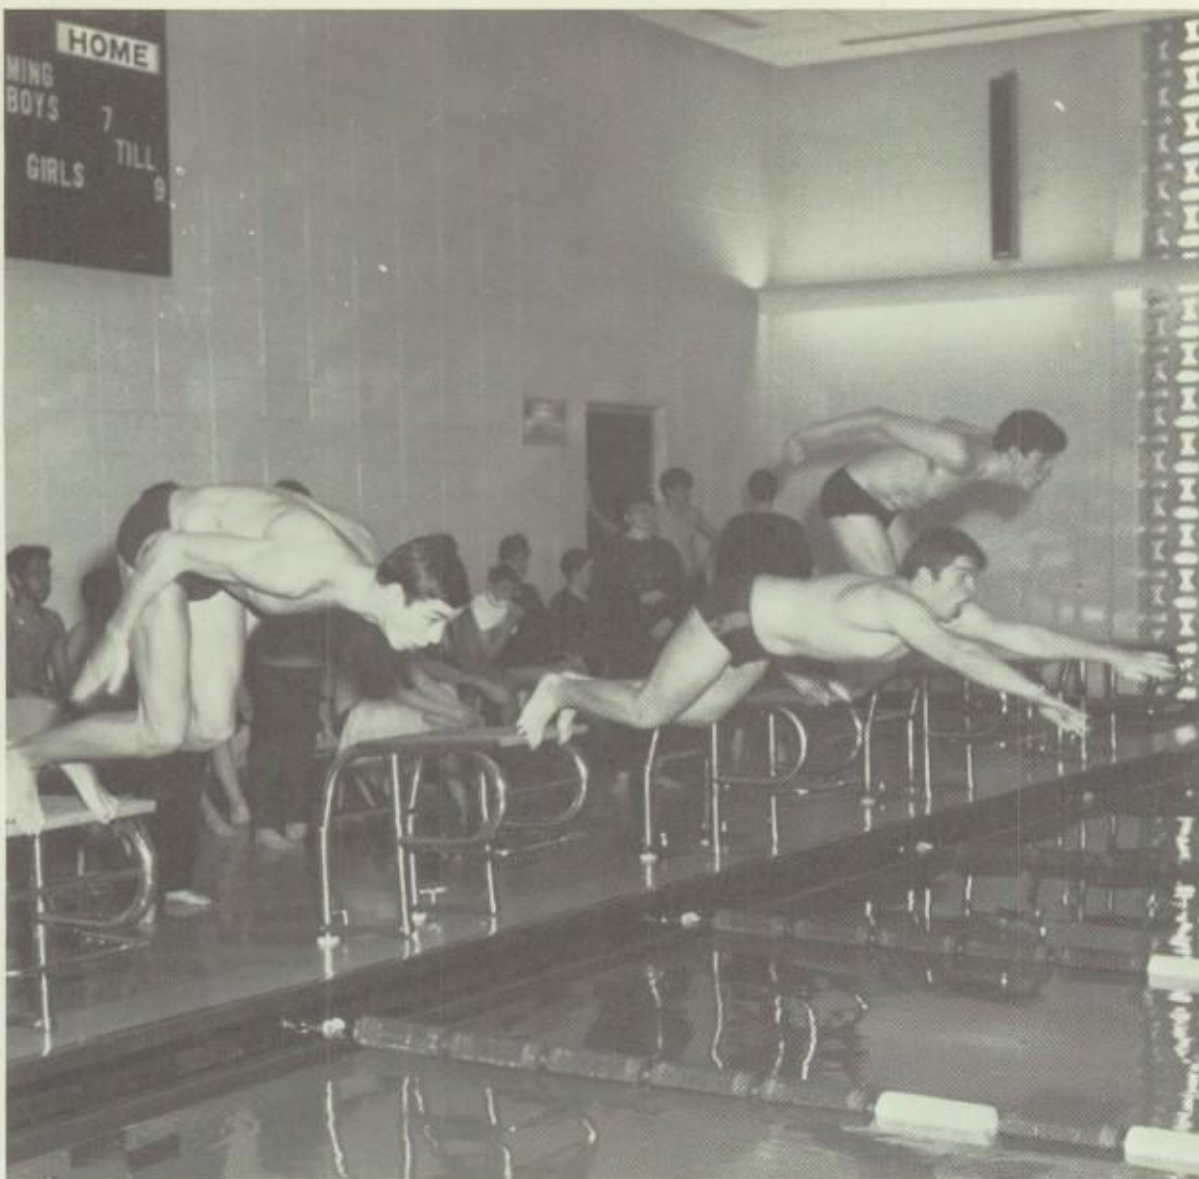

According to Coach Mulcrone this year's team has a fine group of strong young swimmers. It should prove to be another fine season for the Brother Rice swim team with the returning group of tankers.

Basketball — Heavies

Once again this year, through the hard work of Coach Kellogg and a fine group of dedicated players, the Brother Rice Heavies enjoyed another fine season. Having only one returning starter from the championship team of 1968-1969 the team jelled and once again made it to the playoffs. The nucleus of the team was Pat MacFarlane. His hustling, scrappy style of play delighted Rice fans once again and prompted the initiation of the cheer "old man." Pat was named to the All-Area Team by the Chicago Today and to the Coaches All-Catholic Squad. At the other guard was Ed Riska who combined with Pat MacFarlane to form one of the Catholic League's finest pair of guards. Ed had one of his finest games in the crucial win over Leo. The forwards were manned by senior Ray McCahill and junior Phil Hicks. Ray added his hustling play and fine work under the boards along with good outside shooting to give Rice another strong point at the forward. Phil Hicks, only a junior and experiencing his first full Catholic League season came along and matured faster than expected adding his fine rebounding abilities to the team. One of the big surprises of the year came at the center spot where Rich Slogar came up with a fine effort and gave Rice not only fine shooting but also excellent work under the boards. The sixth man was Jim Tracy who gave fine performances when coming off the bench.

During the season followers of the team were surprised to see the drastic change of style in contrast to the pre-season style of play. Mendel was the first to feel this running style of play as they went down to a 82-56 defeat at the hands of Rice. This victory at home gave the team the confidence that it needed to make it into the play-offs once again. The first game at DePaul stadium showed the excellence of the forwards and the center as the height of Rice overwhelmed Loyola. The semi-final game with Hales Franciscan, although a losing effort, gave Rice fans a great deal to be proud of.

MIKE TROY

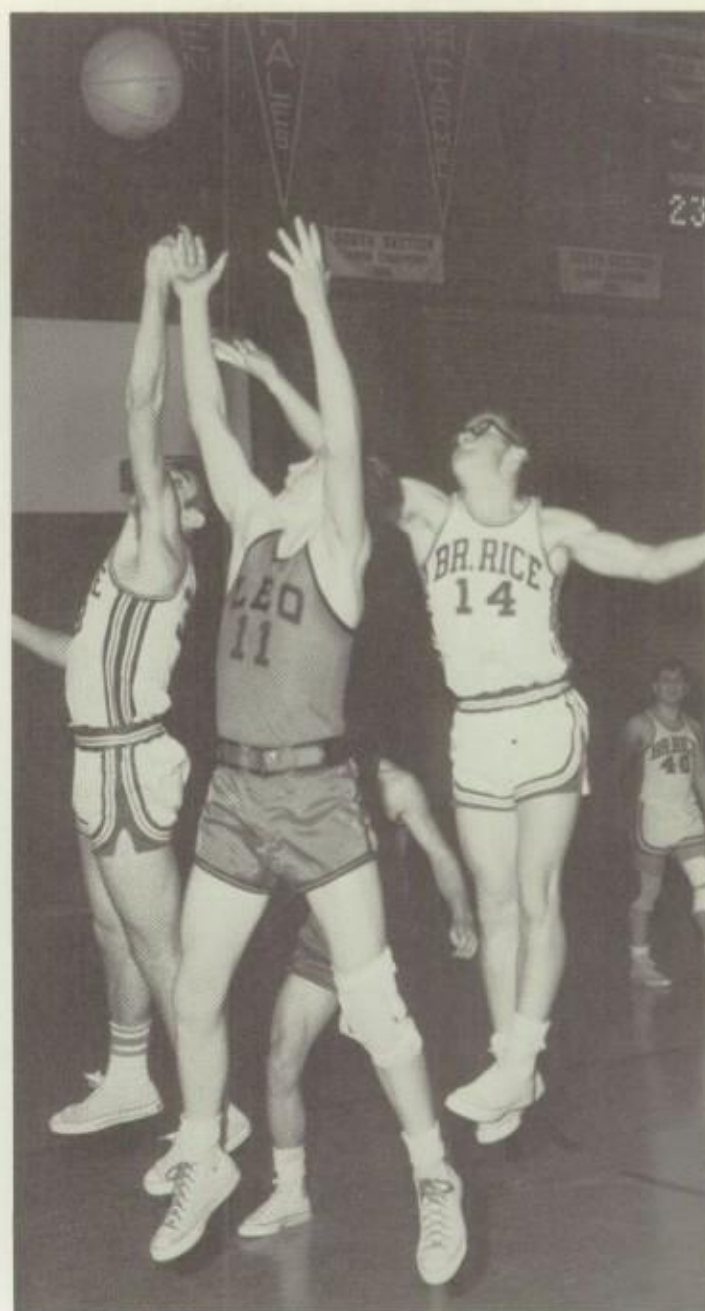

The lights this year finished with a 6-6 league record and a 10-10 record overall. They finished in fourth place, although remaining in contention for a playoff birth until the final game. Coach Kellogg feels it was a very successful season considering they started the season with only one returning letterman.

The team was led by Captain Mike Troy, who was named to the second string All-South Section Team. Other starters included Seniors Rich Peterson and Don Lukas, and juniors Rene Brown and Tony Byrnes. Seniors Joe Cari and Jim Panfil, and freshman Lincoln Walker also saw a lot of action.

Highlights of the season included the team's overtime victory against Rita, and the loss to Leo in the final game of the season which put an end to the lights playoff hopes.

Rich Harrington, Lincoln Walker, and Gary Platt were the strong points of a running and pressing flyweight basketball team this year. Coach John Langdon led his team to a 5-7 record in competition.

A running, scrappy, Bantam team was the product of the efforts of Coach Ed Staron. An 11-4 record was highlighted by a big victory over a sharp Hales team and a 3 out of 4 winning record over Mendel's bantams. The starters were Jack Kenney, Dick Kloak, Ed Miksis, Art Bibbs, and Tom McCahill. "Doc" Staron sees Loyola, Mt. Carmel, and Mendel as being the strong opponents against a capable Rice squad in the near future.

Wrestling

Each year it seems that the Rice matmen get better, and this year is no exception. Despite graduation losses, the grapplers again had an outstanding season. Highlights were the team's victory in the Brother Rice Tournament and a third place finish in the strong Mike Murphy Tournament.

In addition to a fine season, many records were broken. Dan Fee (frosh, 98 lbs.) had a 13-10-1 record; Pat Lamb (soph, 107 lbs.) was 22-8-1; Jim Padden (soph, 123 lbs.) was 21-2-1; Drew Passaglia (senior, 137 lbs.) had a 27-2-0 finish; Frank Miceli (sr., 165 lbs.) was 20-7-0; Bob Ralston (sr., 175 lbs.) had a 14-9-9 season. A new mark for total wins was set by Drew Passaglia, who had an overall 57-18-2 record '67-'70. Other starters were 130 lb. Joe Adler, 155 lb. Kevin Wall, 185 lb. Marty Passolanno, and heavy-weight Dave Pietrzak. Another team record was set for most wins as they compiled a dual meet record of 23-3-1.

The big moments were the victory over perennial rival Mendel, the win over Carmel and a close loss, 20-24, to Public League Champion Tilden. This year, Coach Moll was particularly pleased with the work of co-captains Drew Passaglia and Bob Chaps and the team as a whole. He praised his seniors as hard working; they kept putting out the whole season, a particularly long one at that. The team overcame both inexperience and injuries to Kevin Wall and Brian MacMurray to come back. Coach Moll liked this year's team because of its desire for pins and experience at controlling opponents.

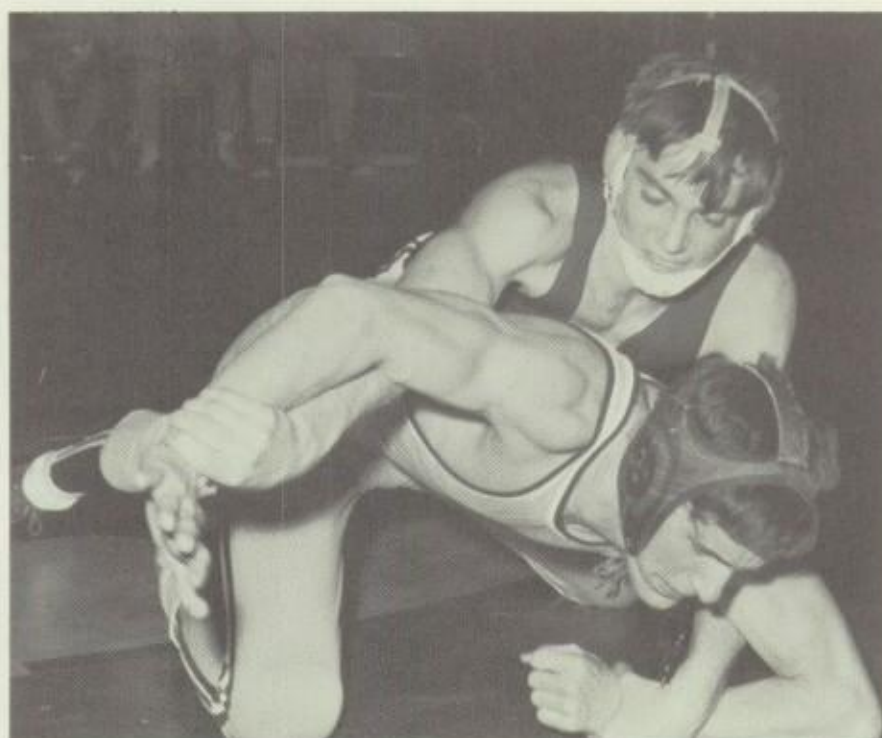

Next year's team should be even better. The group is young, extremely talented, and has desire. In short, team spirit and good experience should keep Rice wrestling strong for years to come.

Petrauskis leads the crew with a half twist.

A close call gives fans a thrill.

This year the tumbling team thrilled audiences throughout the Chicago area while performing their annual job of being "good-ambassadors" for Brother Rice. Led by Larry Cassi, Larry Pakieser, and Charlie Petrauskis, the team made two trips to the Chicago Stadium where they performed for U.C.L.A. and the Chicago Bulls. Brother Rinaldini took his team to Alumni Hall at De Paul and to Quigley for the annual Notre Dame-Quigley Faculty Basketball game.

The squad had a strong backbone with seniors Chuck Dillon, John Flaherty, John Murray, Pat Ryan, and Mike Salvati. The juniors included Gene Carranza and Charles Kay. This daring group performed their best at home, and captivated numerous fans at Rice basketball games.

Unfortunately, this seems as though it may be the last year for the tumbling team, for Brother Rinaldini is leaving to teach in California. However, he expresses the sentiments of the many fans who have watched the performances through the years; "This year's tumbling team was one of the finest performing teams we have ever put together."

Menoni brings the puck to the ice.

One of this year's most successful teams was the hockey team, coached by Mr. Petrak. The big surprise of the season was the team's capturing of Rice's first Kennedy cup, the symbol of Catholic League hockey supremacy. After beating St. Rita two straight, Rice took on a tough Loyola team, beating them in the first game 2-1 in a triple overtime and then finishing them off 4-1 in the final.

Strong checking, swift skating, and the surprisingly stingy goal tending of sophomores Casey Carr and Paul Barry added to a second place league finish. Instrumental in this year's success were forwards Jim Augustine, Glen Menoni, Tony Massaro, Steve Roll, Jerry Haggerty, Mike McNamara and defensemen John Stec, Ed Stoehr, Brian Roll, and Kevin Christy.

This year's leaders were Captain John Stec and Alternate Captain Ed Stoehr, Jerry Haggerty, and Glen Menoni. Defenseman Stec was a league All-Star besides being voted Rice's MVP. Also voted an All-Star was Centerman Glen Menoni. This year's award for most improved player went to defenseman Ed Stoehr.

This year was considered to be a "rebuilding" year, so Rice fans can look forward to an even better season next year.

COACH SEDLACEK

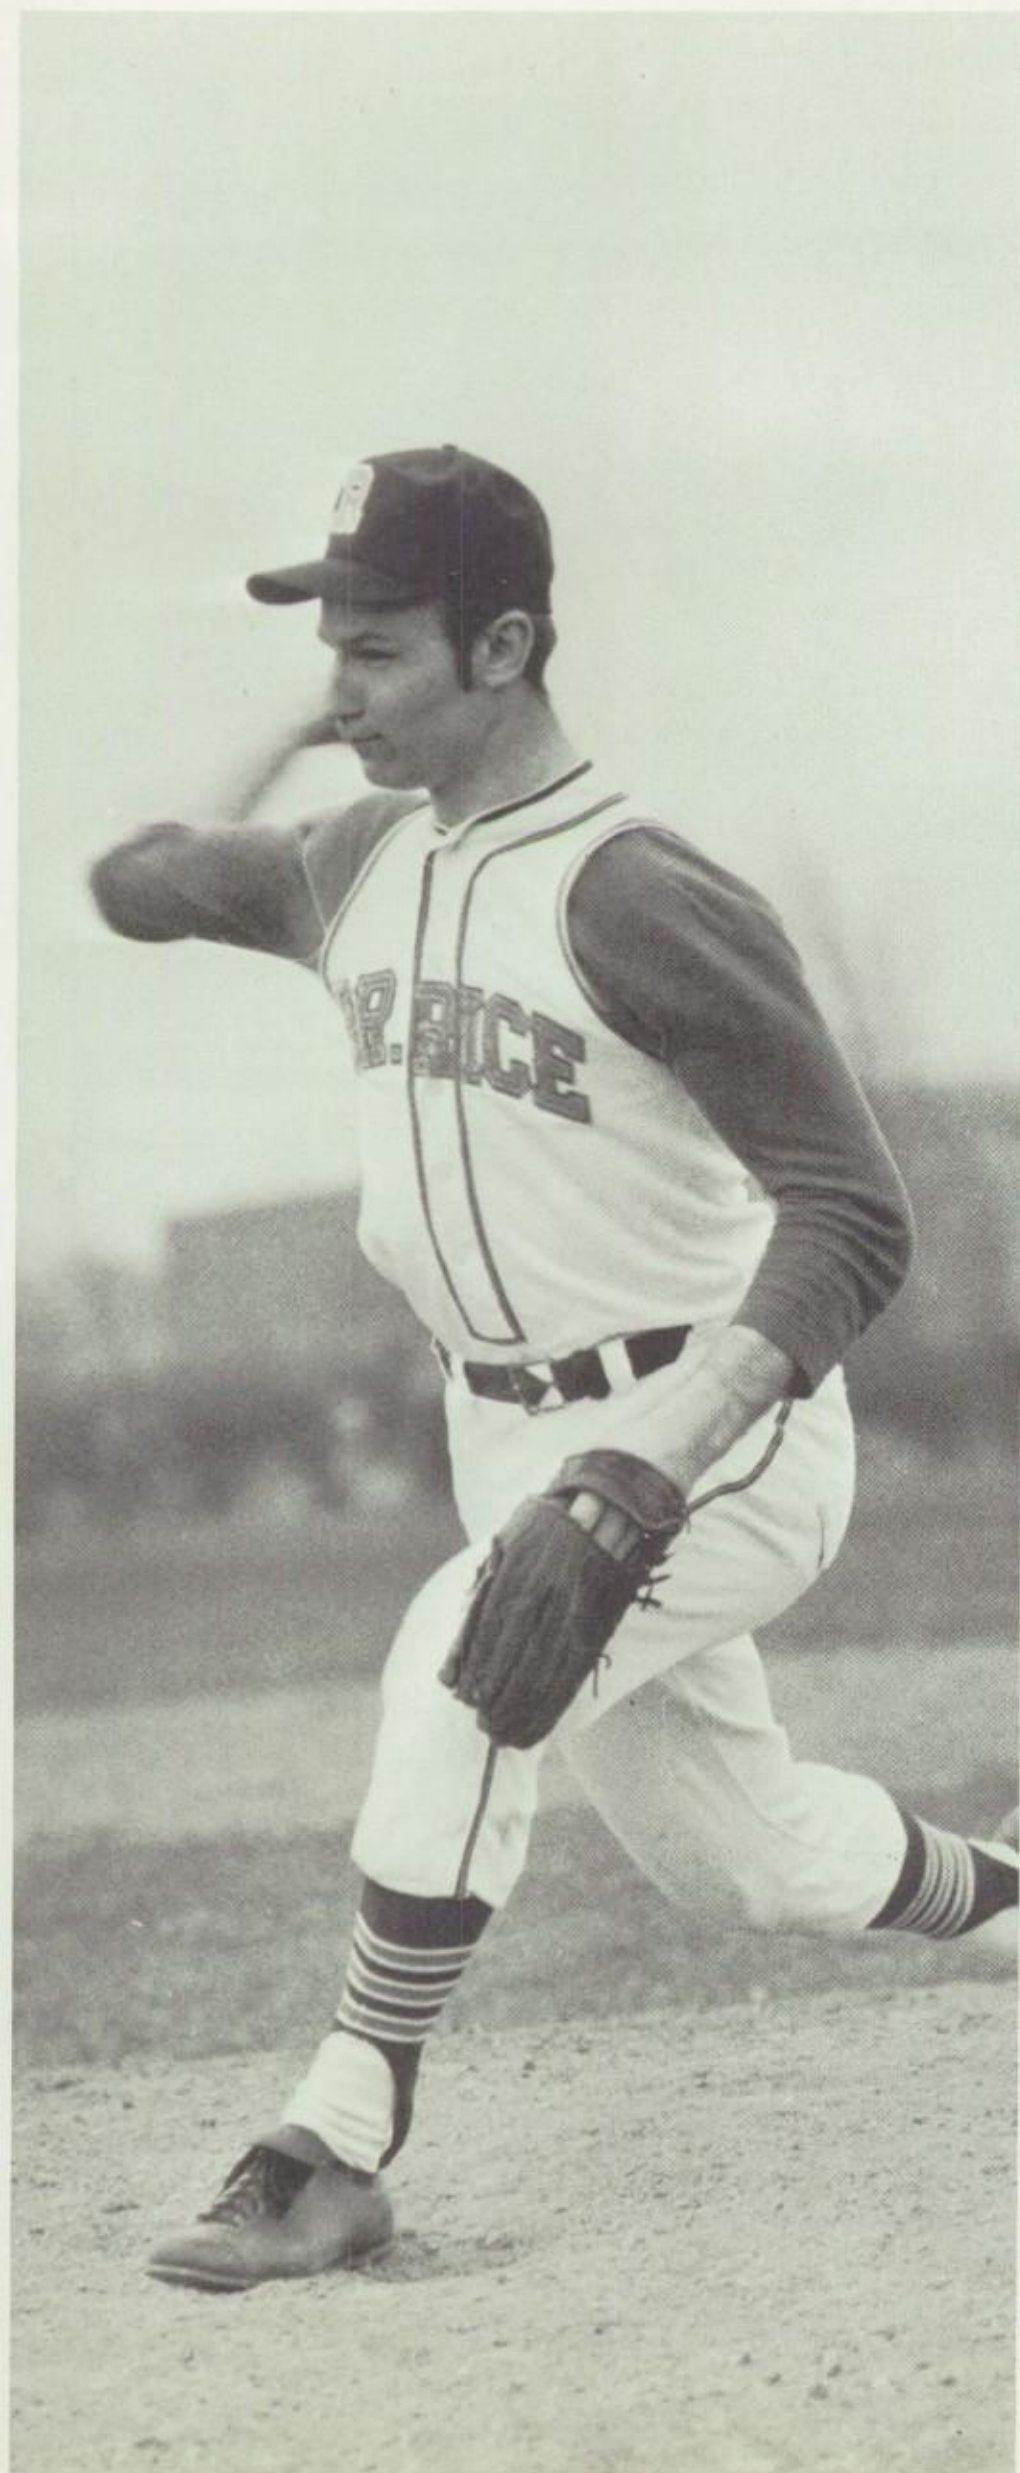

The 1970 Crusader baseball team has a rough tradition to follow. The team has captured the Catholic League City title twice out of the past four years, but Coach Sedlacek and his assistant, Bro. O'Keefe, have confidence in this year's team. The reason for this confidence lies in senior starters Bob Kubiak, Mike Krischel, Mark Smogor, Joe Cari, Al Radz, Andy Langert, Bill Dixon, Pat MacFarlane, and juniors John Fazy and Ray Crowley. Coach Sedlacek has comprised this year's team of "a blend of seniors and youngsters," and he feels that the big factor is how quickly the team can jell. A key in this respect is Captain Mike Troy. He is the team's top hitter and has broken the Rice team record for most hits; he is an All-Catholic League selection and is a partial MVP.

Coach Sedlacek feels that the contenders this year will be Rice, Mendel, and St. Rita. So far, Rice has come up with big wins against both Rita and Laurence.

This year's team is typified by the Rice tradition of strong pitching. Comprising this year's staff are Jerry Zywicka, Phil Hicks, Marc Macarol, Mark Smogor, and Mike Redden. In addition to this year's pitching, quickness, smart baseball, and strength up the middle should give Rice a strong team.

J-V Baseball

The Frosh-Soph baseball team this season has continued the playing excellence that has been common to this club in the past four years at Rice. And why not? Of Coach Cliff Petrak's 26 man team roster, 23 were selected to All-Star status in their summer leagues last summer. The team has racked up a 13-2 record so far this season, thus making the total five year record for frosh-soph baseball an impressive 90 wins against 17 losses. The big victories—a 15-4 shelling of a strong St. Rita team and a 1-0 dual against a tough St. Laurence Squad. The pitching staff has chalked up 5 shutouts already.

Tennis

The tennis team this year captured its fifth consecutive South Section Championship amidst tough competition on the clay courts. Coached by Brother Moore and Mr. Joseph Letkewicz, the team also captured the third place trophy in the Catholic League Playoffs. Captain Larry Letkewicz headed the strong list of seniors on the team, backed by Linus Raslavicius, John Schaller, Pat Sweeney, and Larry Gallagher. These "unsung heroes" accumulated an amazing total of twenty-two individual trophies in tournament play during the season.

Among the highlights of the season for Brother Moore were the two conquests of St. Laurence. Leo was a victim of Rice on the courts a total of three times, the final victory gaining the team their third place victory in the Catholic League tournament.

Although Brother Moore is expecting to lose five seniors, his outlook for the future is optimistic. With returning juniors Joe Brosnan, Mike Schaller, and John Harms, and sophomores Al Palma, Paul Gudonis, Arvy Grybauskas, and Mark Kay, the tennis team should retain the lock on the South Section Championship for another year.

Track

A varsity team at Rice is a potential champion, and it is no different with track. As city champ defenders, a strong team has a big job of repetition, and an impressive South Section victory is the first step.

Distance runner Jack Murphy paced the Ricemen with his big double victory in the half and one mile events. High jumper Mark Murphy scored another first while Bob Bottger and Tom Daum added a one-two punch in polevault. The mile relay team of Cygan, C. Lewandowski, Cronin, and Norris put the final touch to the victory with another first.

Tom Daum, Jack Murphy, and Bob York captain the team which boasts of impressive depth. Tom Stack, Rich Cygan, Jim Freeman, Joe Meyer, Chuck Devens, Rich Manion, and Phil Stanko comprise a solid distance squad while Mike O'Conner, Bob Demes, Mark Sterk, Jack Lewandowski, and Ron Petri run the short sprints. Quarter milers include Pat Norris, Mark Cronin, Craig Lewandowski, and John Burke. Bob Bottger, Mark Murphy, Ed Zelko, John Milan, Jim Quinn, Leo Plomin, Tom Daum, John Topor, Ed Fioretti, and Ed Glazar cover various field events; and the hurdlers—Bob Soich, Jim McLaughlin, Kevin Smith, and Jim Moser.

Following in the footsteps of the senior varsity track team is an aggressive J-V squad. These freshman and sophomore runners and fieldmen who will represent Rice in the near future can boast of potential success in the present.

Freshman Sylvester O'Dell highlights the young squad with his talented hurdling, sprinting, high jumping, and long jumping. Joining him is a flock of promising sprinters—Pat Raleigh, Charlie Banks, Terry Bowen, Hunter Lewis, Don Rey, and Kevin Cronin. A few outstanding distance runners are Ken Zawalinski, Joe Gallagher, Ron Murray, and Bob Scully. Several J-V fieldmen who show promise are Kevin Cronin, Tom Boylan, Frank Mattaliano, Mike Scheid. Steve Howard and Tim Usher run hurdles for the J-V squad. Coach Burt and Coach Coffey manage the junior varsity team.

Bowling

Coach Joe Johnston's bowlers showed a fine and dedicated seventy season by taking second place in the six team Catholic League South Section. Dave Voith's highest game score of 246 in the league's all-star match and Bud Dietrich's All Catholic team nomination were just an indication of the outstanding performance of the team as a whole. A spirited 6-2 victory over a strong Weber team highlighted the enthusiasm of this year's bowling season.

Seniors Paul Dinolfo and Bud Dietrich captained a talented squad manned by juniors Steve Sendaj, Dave Voith, Garry Keller, and Chuck Trautmann. Sophomores Robert Gaw and Frank Sikora rounded out the remainder of the team.

Coach Johnston believes that the wealth of underclassmen returning for next year's season should provide Rice with another fine season in bowling.

The Senior section of the golf team finished fifth in the Catholic League City Championship Meet of last year. This year, however, should be a different story because of the wealth of returning seniors. These seniors include Bob Fixel, Roger Gaw, Tony Las, Mike McNamara, Don McLinden, John O'Brien, Rich Peterson, and Jim Thornton. This group of seniors will be aided by an equally able group of juniors. These members include medalist Pete Shannon, Mike Kelly, Regi Starzyk, Rich Slogar, and Rich Werhand.

The junior division of golf team enjoyed a first place finish in the Championship meet of last year. A large number of sophomores hope to lead the junior team to a fete equal to that of last year's team.

This year the golf team will see one large change. This change coming in the coach. Brother Donnelly will now head the team and hope to guide them to another championship for Brother Rice.

Soccer

Soccer at Brother Rice began its third season in the early spring. With a wealth of returning players Bro. Marque hopes to take his team to a top finish. St. Joseph and Harrison High Schools offer some of the top competition for first place. Hard work, hustle, and determination, though, should help bring the team along.

Returning starters from last year's third place "A" team are captains Tom Knapp and Pat Schenck. Pat was the winner of the best defensive player award for last year but will see action on both offense and defense at the halfback position. Tom Knapp will bring his experience to the front line. Seniors Jim O'Reilly and Bill Bal along with Frank Sheridan and Paul Berry round out the front line. Ted Machnicki, Don Busch and Don Vaccarello are the other scrappy halfbacks. Veteran Vic Trinkus and newcomer Rich Flanagan form the defensive corps and protect netmen Jack Keating and Tom Weinberger.

The "B" soccer team is led by George Long, Jim Lyons, and John Lenert.

With all these players Coach Bro. Marque looks forward to a successful campaign.

Intramurals at Brother Rice provide an opportunity for almost all students to compete at some sport. Intramural Basketball is the largest intramural sport at Brother Rice. Most religion classes sponsored a team to compete in the league. This year's winners were Br. Vranka's first semester senior class, who defeated the sophomore champs for the title.

Another intramural sport in which many students compete is Intramural Bowling. This year, Br. Lucas' team won in the junior-senior league, clinching the title with a last-day victory over their second-place rivals.

Several other intramurals exist at Brother Rice. Intramural Softball was just beginning at the time of our printing, and some students play handball several days a week.

Student Council

The 1970 Student Council attempted to draw students closer to the activities of Brother Rice while serving as a spokesman of the students to the school administration. The Council continued its past services of providing information about school matters to the students and guiding various activities, such as the prom. But this year's Council also took on new functions. A Student-Faculty Review Board was started and the Student Council initiated changes in the dress code at the start of the school year.

Moderated by Mr. Cummings and led by President Ed Keeley, the Student Council became more active this year. This increased activity was especially notable on the part of senior representatives. A school as large as Rice needs responsible and active student leadership and Student Council representatives, the leaders of the school, recognized this.

Dance Committee

With Rich Stringham providing outstanding spirit and leadership, the Dance Committee made it possible for many people to have pleasant memories. "Riverboat Rendezvous," this year's homecoming theme, and the preceding rally and bonfire were a success due to the committee's long and patient work. The setting for the semester dance, "Light My Fire, Some Like it Hot," was magnificent. The cafeteria was transformed into an eerie inferno. The sawdust dances were another successful project of the Dance Committee. The dances not only produced a good profit for the school, but provided enjoyment for countless numbers of area students. Working behind the scenes to make Rice's social affairs as enjoyable as possible were: moderator Brother Heustis, Stringham, Mike Siedlecki, Nick Hubalik, Bill Bal, and many others.

Band

"Versatility" ought to be the motto of this year's band. Directed by Mr. Henning, it not only presented its own Christmas and Spring Concerts, but frequently performed at other locations throughout the city. It marched in the Columbus Day and St. Patrick's Day parades. During the football season, the Band's dedicated musicians practiced almost daily under the direction of Mr. Henning. In addition the Dance Band, led by Mr. Franks, prepares special jazz selections.

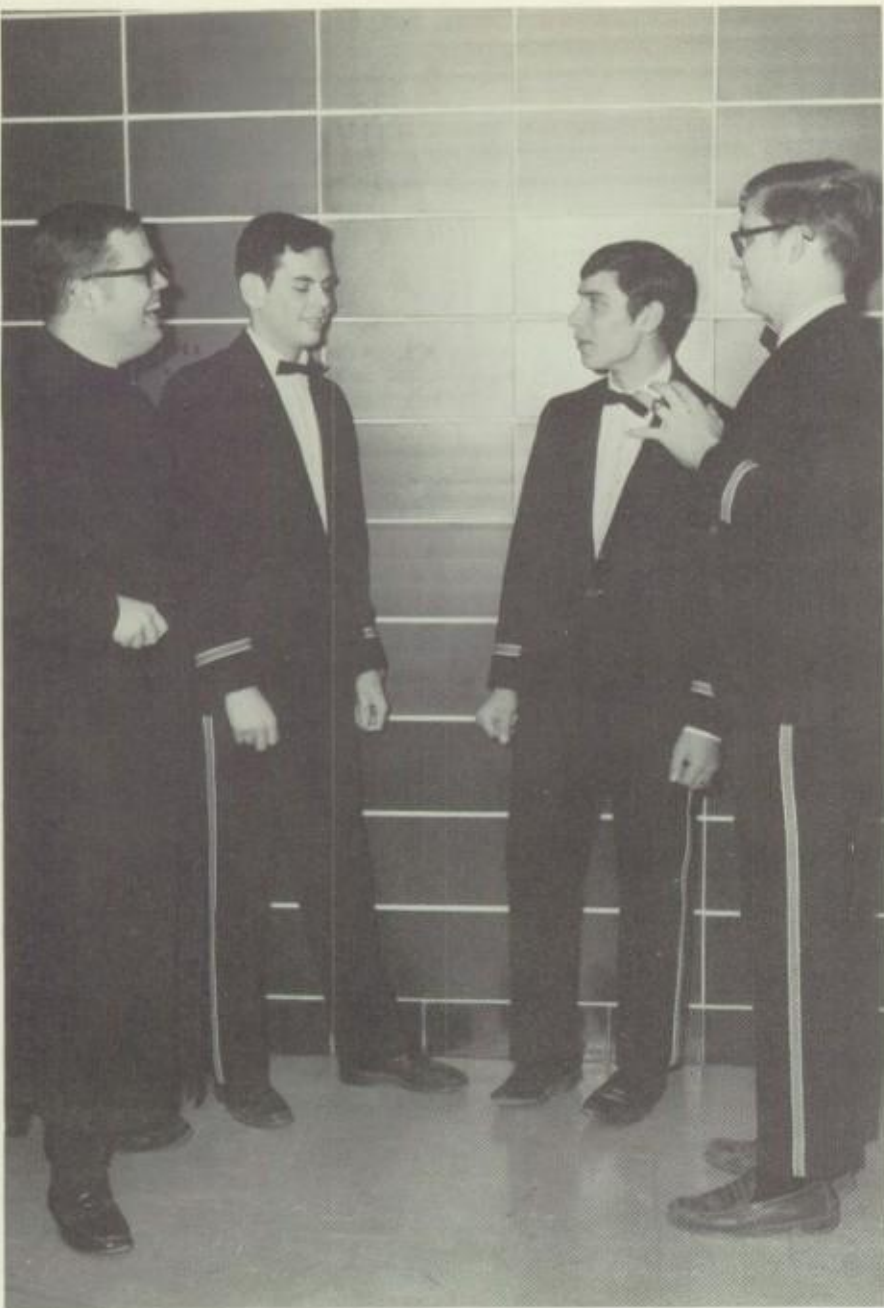

Br. Coleman and Mr. Henning are looking forward to a bigger and better band next year since Band will be offered as an accredited subject during the school day. They feel certain the band will continue its fine reputation in representing Brother Rice.

Crusader '70

After many hours of tedium and exacting labor in its new headquarters, the editors and staff of Crusader '70 made this yearbook whatever it is. Many headaches undergone by editor-in-chief Bob Taylor and moderator Brother Kenneth Chapman—for example, the early financial difficulties, the arguments over treatment of content, and the troubles with the artistic nature of the new layout—made the yearbook a continual challenge. The dance funds bailed Crusader '70 out financially, however, and the task of layout was lightened by the book's Layout co-editors, Don Russo and Mike Flisak. Several innovations were introduced: an artistic introduction, a large number of color photos, and an all-candid faculty section. Much of the photography was handled by two student photographers, John Lenahan and Henry Scibor.

Don Russo and Bob Taylor go over layouts for the band section.

Standard

This year's Standard was moderated by Brother Marque for the second time. Each of the seven issues contained editorials, student interviews, and a summary of upcoming events. Most of the editions also included movie and record reviews and faculty interviews. Two changes in the format of this year's paper were the addition of letters to the editor and the change of faculty biographies to interviews.

Humor columns were dropped this year because editor Chuck Devens felt the Standard should become more serious and less cliquish. Therefore, space for editorials was increased, and controversial stands were sometimes adopted. These positions caused greater student interest in the newspaper, and also caused student disagreement. This disagreement was responsible for more discussion of national issues at Rice as the editors hoped it would do.

Editor-in-chief Chuck Devens and Brother Marque consider the quality of the last issue of the Standard.

Pep Club

The Pep Club again led the student body in cheering on Rice's teams. Under the direction of president Rich Stringham and moderator Br. Heustis, the Pep Club started a new tradition, a bonfire at Homecoming. The bonfire was made up of anything the Pep Club could find, twigs, doors, and twenty foot poles. It was guarded for several days by many tired seniors.

Kevin Wall served as this year's Crusader. He and Rich Stringham led the cheers with the help of several other loud voices. Club members attended every football and basketball game, and they attempted to inspire spirit for other sports by their artistic skills (?) to make the various posters that were seen about the school.

Calm

Of the many social action groups formed at Rice, the largest is CALM, the Chicago Area Lay Movement. Each Tuesday afternoon, with members of Mother McAuley's Future Teachers of America, over two hundred students taught reading to underprivileged students in three inner city schools: Holy Cross, St. Cecilia, and St. Cyril.

The only group which did not work either at Rice or at Mother McAuley was St. Cyril's, located at 64th and Dante on the east side. Moderated by Brother McGraw of Rice and Sister Karen of McAuley, over seventy students were driven to the school by Brother Unsworth to teach reading.

Artistic and literary efforts of the tutees were published in the Cyril's Soul Circular, a mimeo magazine with an irregular interval between issues. The paper was edited by seniors Rich O'Donnell and Wes Pierz from Rice and Donna McGee and Sharon Mayer from McAuley.

Efforts of the Cyril's group included a Christmas party at the school, with Santa Claus (Marty Urba), presents and a skit from Wes Pierz; and the traditional year-end picnic held at Rice on May 7th.

Every Tuesday at the Mother McAuley cafeteria, students from Rice and McAuley met with tutees ranging from grades two through five. Harold the Friendly Newspaper was their bi-weekly publication with articles written by tutees and edited by Marf and Gina Reynolds.

The year was highlighted by a Christmas party in which Santa Claus brought presents to all the youngsters. At the end of the year, a picnic was held at Rice for all the CALM groups. The children were able to swim, play baseball, and partake in other sports. Refreshments were served during the day.

St. Cecelia group was formed this year as a pioneer program. It was unique among CALM groups because children of all grades, 3-8, were tutored in any subject that they need help. The group published a bi-weekly newspaper called Soul City. All of the material was contributed by St. Cecilia's students and edited by Mark Wier, Mark Ganas, Bob Jelen, Kathy Karamanski, and Donna Goliak. Saint Cecilia's moderator, Br. Project '70

Project '70 was originally organized to bring the efforts of YCS and CCD into a single group to strengthen the effort of the individuals involved. A program conceived early in 1969 was brought into actuality to bring the recreational facilities of Brother Rice to elementary school students at St. Benedict's in Blue Island and at St. Peter Claver's in Robbins. Students from Rice and girls from Lourdes and Longwood coordinated activities in sports, games, and art. The second annual trip to Appalachia at Christmas was organized by the students in Project '70. A number of students from Rice teach religion classes at neighboring parishes through the CCD phase of Project '70. The mentor and advisor is Brother James T. Marque.

The Biology Club has completed another active year. Membership was higher than in any other year with seniors Larry Gallagher, Joe Haughney, and Tim Knox spearheading the club's numerous projects. Under the fantastic (?) leadership of Br. Murphy, the club has added more than 1000 miles to its travel log this year while exploring various ecological phenomena. Field trips took the members to Mississippi Palisades Park, Methessen State Park, Shedd Aquarium, and Buffalo State Park. Tranquilizing of deer at Argonne was undertaken: the deer were then tagged by painting numbers on their sides. After studying several ponds, streams, and fields the club transplanted certain fish, animals, and plants to increase the web of life in these areas.

The Natural History Guide Service, a summer activity of the club, is entering its third successful year. Grammar school children are taken on field trips through the forest preserves in this program. On April 22, National Earth Day, the club acquired nine speakers to address the school on man's abuses of his environment. As Brother Murphy says, "There's never a dull moment" in the Bio Club as students discover man's relation to the world around him.

Physics Club

Under the moderation of Brother Michael Lucas, members of the Physics Club continued development of the electron microscope. After eight years of work a magnification of 8500X has been reached. The excellence of the resolution of images produced by the microscope was displayed by comparing its photomicrographs to those of a compound microscope. Although the electron microscope was not entered in the 1970 Science Fair, it was used for analysis of organic compounds in individual research projects.

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society is in its third year at Rice. Moderated by Br. Donnelly, the Rice NHS group is a chapter of a nationwide organization of superior students. The club consists of juniors and seniors who are elected by the faculty. Each member must have a 3.0 average and is expected to be active in extracurricular activities.

In previous years, the NHS has been strictly an honor society at Rice. Br. Donnelly is working to change this. The Society has grown larger (it has 39 seniors and 56 juniors) and he hopes to use the increased membership to further projects helping the school. This year the members worked on the new alumni association, and a student review of the faculty is planned for next year. President Tom Daum and Vice-President Bob Taylor have led the club to more activity and this trend is likely to continue next year.

B.R.A.T.

The Brother Rice Association of Tutors involved almost 200 students this year. Every day, tutors met with their individual tutees at lunch periods for half an hour of tutoring in any subject. Math and language were the favorites. A very small fee was charged for each meeting, mainly intended to keep the students on their toes. The individual tutors reported to the teachers and parents of the students under their guidance.

Under the well organized hand of Br. John D. Donnelly, BRAT has prospered this year and will continue to grow as the Math and Language departments redouble their efforts to annihilate students.

Debate

Though still moderated by Mr. Ross, the Debate team's record suffered through the loss of several seniors. The president, Larry Gallagher, led the team in debating this year's question: "Unilateral Military Intervention of U.S. in Foreign Countries." For the first time, Brother Rice sponsored a national invitational tournament. The team participated in four debates and one in Milwaukee. One of the few bright spots this year was Matt Tryzna and Gene Asner winning third and Larry Gallagher fourth place at the Student Congress held at City Hall April 4.

Forensics

Rice's Forensics Team completed its most successful season in Catholic League competition. Mr. Ross and Mr. Hickey guided the team through four varsity meets and numerous frosh-soph meets. Gene Asner won a first place in one of the varsity meets and the freshmen and sophomores earned a creditable record picking up several trophies. Bob Rucker, Jim O'Brien, and Marty Urba finished high in their categories and qualified for the Nationals that were held at Miami Beach.

Art Club

The Art Club members have exhibited more enthusiasm this year than ever before. Under the direction of Brother Chapman, an accomplished artist himself, they experiment with acrylic paint and such mediums as wire, plaster, wood, and ceramics. For the most part, the members work on projects of their own choosing, sometimes till 10:00 P.M. Their work can be seen displayed in the school foyer.

Library Club

Even though it's a nonpaying job, the Library Aides perform competently in keeping the new library running. Overseen by Brother Pilon, they stack books, supervise and clean. The capacity of the library has quadrupled this year. In a few years it's expected to double its number of 12,000 volumes so the Aides have plenty to work on. Besides this, they are engaged in writing a handbook for Student Staff Librarians (as the Aides will be known next year) and a manual for students on library use. In the words of one of their members: "We're here to help the students and nothing else."

Black Student-Union

Formed in March of 1970, the Black Student Union has echoed a new look in organization in the black community. The idea of the union was to promote awareness and unity for the black students living in white Rice society. With the meetings open to all comers, the group attempted to show a wide scope of society to all its members through guest speakers and discussions. Moderated by Mr. Edward Robinson, the union has benefited all its participants.

Impulse

In its fourth year of publication, Impulse was once again a success. Treating the war in Viet Nam as its prime topic, the literary magazine included drawings and photographs in its new semi-hard cover format. Led by Mr. Kevin Hickey and layout editors Steve Drury and Bill Husarik, the staff put in a great deal of time editing and revising the many articles submitted.

SCAP

An organization assembled to combat a specific problem is SCAP, for the Student Committee Against Pollution, dedicated to action against the growing problems of air and water pollution. Under the guidance of Mr. Edward J. Bara, this group set as its goal the instruction of the public about the specific dangers of environmental pollution, especially water pollution from phosphates in commercial detergents. SCAP has worked with the Ecology Action Committee of the Moraine Valley Community College, and several of its members participated in Earth Day activities.

Mothers' Club

The mothers' sincere interest in their sons' school was shown by the abundance of activities they initiated at Rice. Moderated by Br. F. C. Shannon, they sponsored an open house and tea for freshmen, held a Circus Fair, and sponsored several boys for the Hunger Walk. With the money raised at the fair, Br. Unsworth bought a projector and a video-tape machine.

The mothers also worked on charity projects outside of the school. The toys left over from the fair were given to children's orphanages. During Christmas, the club delivered gifts and entertained at the Oak Forest Home.

Moderated by Brother McGraw, the club's function is to aid the school in furthering the education of their sons. The dads assist in the fund drive, which raised $52,000 this year, promote father-son activities, and raise more money through dances. This year the club has enjoyed its highest membership ever, 1176. Further interest to the Dads' Club's monthly meetings is added by guest speakers such as Mike J. Howlett, State Auditor of Illinois.

EVENTS

Homecoming

This year's Homecoming Dance was perhaps more spectacular than any year previous. Under the direction of Br. Heustis and the Dance Committee, this year's theme was "A Riverboat Rendezvous."

The weekend started with a new event here at Br. Rice—a bonfire. Made up of donated wood and a telephone pole, it was lit by Kevin Wall. Following this event on Saturday was the dance, with music being provided by the "Dontays" and Don Caron's band. About half way through the festivities, the queen, Karen Nelson, who was accompanied by Al Radz, was crowned.

The Homecoming weekend was topped off by two events on Sunday. The first took place that afternoon when Rice met Weber in Gately Stadium. Once again our team proved itself by defeating Weber 34-8.

Following the game was the traditional Victory dance, which completed the evening for all.

It's Academic

For the first time in Rice's history, the school's "It's Academic" team captured first place in summer competition. Directed by Mr. Baader, the team consisted of six seniors—captain Mark Wier, Jim O'Brien, and Larry Gallagher and alternates Jim Karel, Mark Ganas, and Marty Powers.

In their first outing, Wier, O'Brien and Gallagher racked up a then Rice high of 345 points to defeat Naperville and St. Charles. When they received an invitation to participate in the semi-finals, however, St. Ignatius, an I.H.S.A. school, refused to play Rice (a non-association school) and opportunities for playoff victory were postponed. In June, the team was called back to face Immaculate Heart H.S. of Chicago and Whiting H.S. of Whiting, Indiana. Again, Rice came out on top, scoring 405 points to best the 370-point total of Immaculate Heart and the 110-point offering of Whiting.

The trio then advanced to the championship round, facing traditional foe Mendel and St. Francis H.S. of Wheaton, Ill. This time the team tallied the highest Rice score in six years of "It's Academic" competition, 495 points (said to be 515 points by Rice partisans, although not allowed by program officials). Mendel finished a distant second with 240 points, and St. Francis trailed with 160 points. The title match is to be telecast September 19 on Channel 5 (NBC).

National Merit Winners

Thirteen students graduating in the top one percent of high school seniors in the nation gained recognition from the National Merit Scholarship Commission. This is perhaps the highest possible recognition for the high school student. Twenty-seven other students also received recognition in the form of letters of commendation for their high scores on the National Merit exams.

Liturgies

A good number of liturgies were held this year at Rice. They were varied in purpose. Some were held for peace, some for deceased students, and some for hope. The first mass of the year was held in honor of the three students of Brother Rice who died during the summer of 1969. On October 15, the day of the first Vietnam Moratorium, a mass for peace was held before school in which students participating could openly voice their views on the Vietnam War, peace in the world and peace in themselves. Other liturgies, organized by Br. Marque and a few of his students, were held at various times throughout the second semester and celebrated with themes of hope, sacrifice and truth.

Semester Dance

This year's Semester Dance based its theme on "fire." Dancing to either the "Extreme End" or the "Cobblestone Road Quintet," couples spent their evening in a graveyard, chaperoned by the Devil. The results of the work of Br. Heustis and the Dance Committee were greatly appreciated by all.

Science Fair

Brother Rice, due to its highly-rated science department, has sent another large group of scientists to the state fair in Urbana. Sixteen projects, ranging from "The Laser" to the "Rabbit's Role in the Prairie Ecosystem," represented Brother Rice. Each of the students gives of his time to work at these projects, thus showing true Rice pride.

The seven students whose pictures appear on this page and the next—three seniors, two juniors, and two sophomores—captured outstanding awards at the Chicago Area Catholic District Science Fair, held at the Amphitheatre. Junior Ray Brizgys and sophomores Rich Sabis and Dan Callham also won outstandings in the rugged competition at Urbana.

Art Fair

The Art Fair, a part of Expo '70, was a display of creations of the Art Club. Over 200 exhibits, ranging from works with wax to ceramic sculpture, were shown. Also displayed were various painting techniques and the working of a potter's wheel. All work was done under the guidance of our resident artist, Br. Chapman.

Sawdust Dances

This year a number of sawdust dances were held at Rice. These dances, managed by Br. Heustis and the Dance Committee, had a greater turnout than ever before. With the help of the Dads' Club and some off-duty policemen, the large crowds of people were kept orderly, thus adding to the popularity of the dances at Rice. The sawdust dances featured some big name groups, both nationally and locally. Among the bands performing were The Cryan' Shames, TW4, The Extreme End, and the Mackinac Island Armory.

With a new type of play involving many non-high school students Oliver! was a great achievement in direction. Several scenes involving original choreography were conceived by Mrs. Thomas Mitchell and Brother Robert May. Direction of both the band and the chorus was undertaken by Mr. John O'Brien. Construction and painting of scenery, which was designed by Brother Chapman, was watched over by the benevolent eye of Brother Cotter while entire control over all phases of the production was entrusted to the very capable hands of the director Brother F. C. Shannon.

Illinois State Scholars

Brother Rice, once more, has excelled in the number of Illinois State Scholarships that its students have received. Judged on both their A.C.T. scores and their class rank, 110 Rice seniors were awarded scholarships. These awards come mainly in the form of cash prizes, although some students were given honorary mentions. Illinois State Scholarships are given to worthy students who plan on attending Illinois colleges and universities.

Retreats

Each year, a period for spiritual renewal is set aside for Brother Rice students. The retreats this year emphasized Christian involvement on the part of the Br. Rice students. Priests such as Fr. Rohr, were brought to Rice to speak to the juniors and sophomores. Rice students were also used as speakers.

Senior Trip

During the Easter vacation, 23 seniors dropped the worries of Chicago life and toured sunny California. The excursion traveled from San Francisco, down the coast, to L.A. While in California, they visited such tourist spots as Disneyland, Haight-Asbury, Chinatown, Sunset Strip, and later, Tijuana, Mexico. Good planning on the part of Br. Vranka, and good weather helped make this Senior Trip one to be remembered by all who were involved.

Social Action

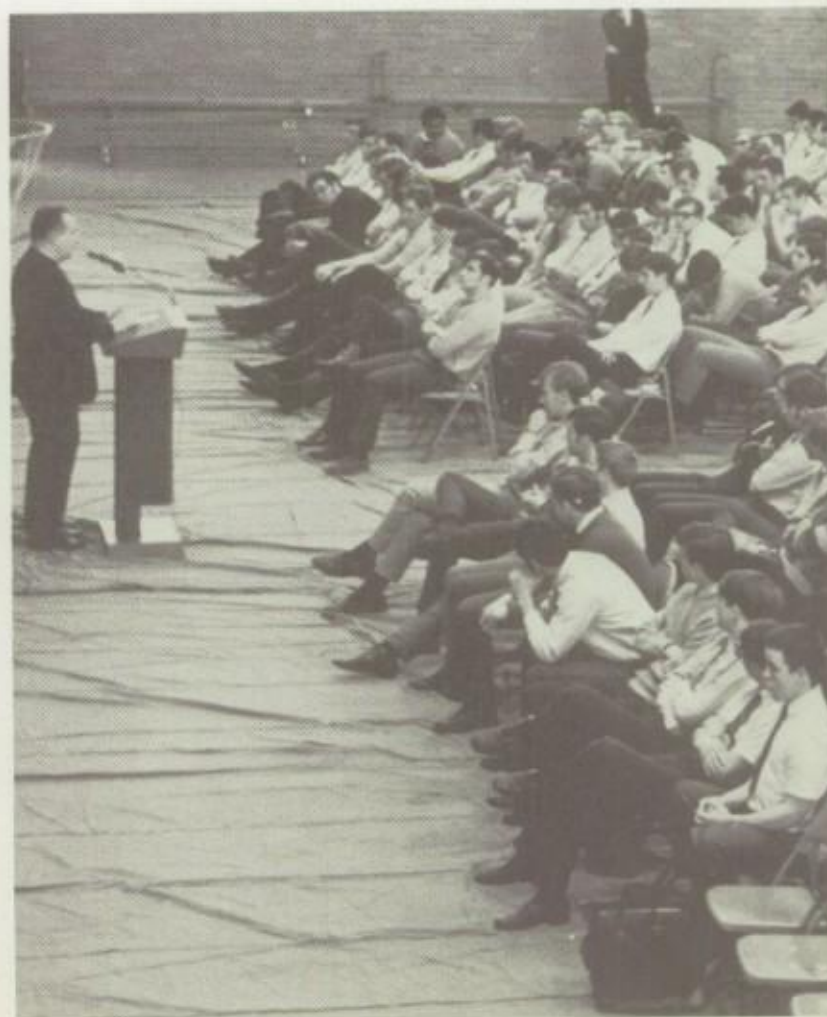

Throughout the year, Brother Rice has acquired numerous awards for participation in the areas of sports, science, speech, and academics. However, our school has truly excelled in its attempt, as a whole, to become socially aware. Various events, starting with the Peace Mass on the October moratorium, and ending with the Walk for Development, have taken place with the help of the administration and student body of Br. Rice. These efforts, although sometimes small and almost meaningless, have proven that Br. Rice is more than a "factory" and truly a place of higher education, on all levels.

Three major "social" events took place throughout the year. The first was the Mass for Peace, which was held on the first moratorium of the Vietnam war, on October 12. The second effort was a group of lectures set up by members of the Biology Club, on Earth Day, April 22. The purpose of these speeches was to inform students of the problems of pollution. The third and probably the most beneficial event was the Walk for Development. The walk, run by senior Tom Nash and junior Chris Lynch raised over $75,000 for the problem of hunger.

If the present is any preview of what is to come, the future of Br. Rice will be prosperous. Br. Rice students have proven that they have the ability. They only seek the opportunity.

Prom

The weekend of May 1 will not soon be forgotten by most of the class of 1970. For that was the date of the Brother Rice Senior Prom, attended at Ferrara Manor by three-fourths of the seniors. The spacious Manor and its elaborate decor established an ideal atmosphere for a memorable evening of fun.

Two contrasting musical groups did their remarkable best in filling the ballroom with song. The Enchanters IV played mainly with the familiar rock beat, while the Lou Breese Orchestra, conducted by Leo Henning, provided a romantic change of pace. The highly-acclaimed Brother Rice Players also made a surprise appearance, delighting the audience with a medley of tunes from Oliver!

The Queen of the Prom was beautiful Roberta Kempf, escorted by Jim Bartley. Linda Roth, escorted by Jim Nelson, and Gloria Portella, escorted by Jim O'Brien, were chosen princesses. After the coronation, a satisfying steak dinner was served, followed by more dancing.

The Ferrara festivities concluded at 2:00 AM, but the celebration continued long afterward. The crazed couples caught valuable minutes of sleep, as the birds chirped and the sun rose, before bravely embarking on their picnics that same Saturday morning. All will agree that the 1970 Prom was a smashing success and an unforgettable experience. Thanks to Brothers May and Heustis and the prom committee.

Graduation

The Senior Class of 1970 ended their final year in good style. The commencement exercises on May 31st, were preceded by a Baccalaureate Mass and dinner on the evening of May 28th. All seniors and their parents were invited. The mass was written by the various senior captains and leaders of activities at Br. Rice. The dinner at Br. Rice, which followed the mass, had as its Master of Ceremonies, Br. Shannon.

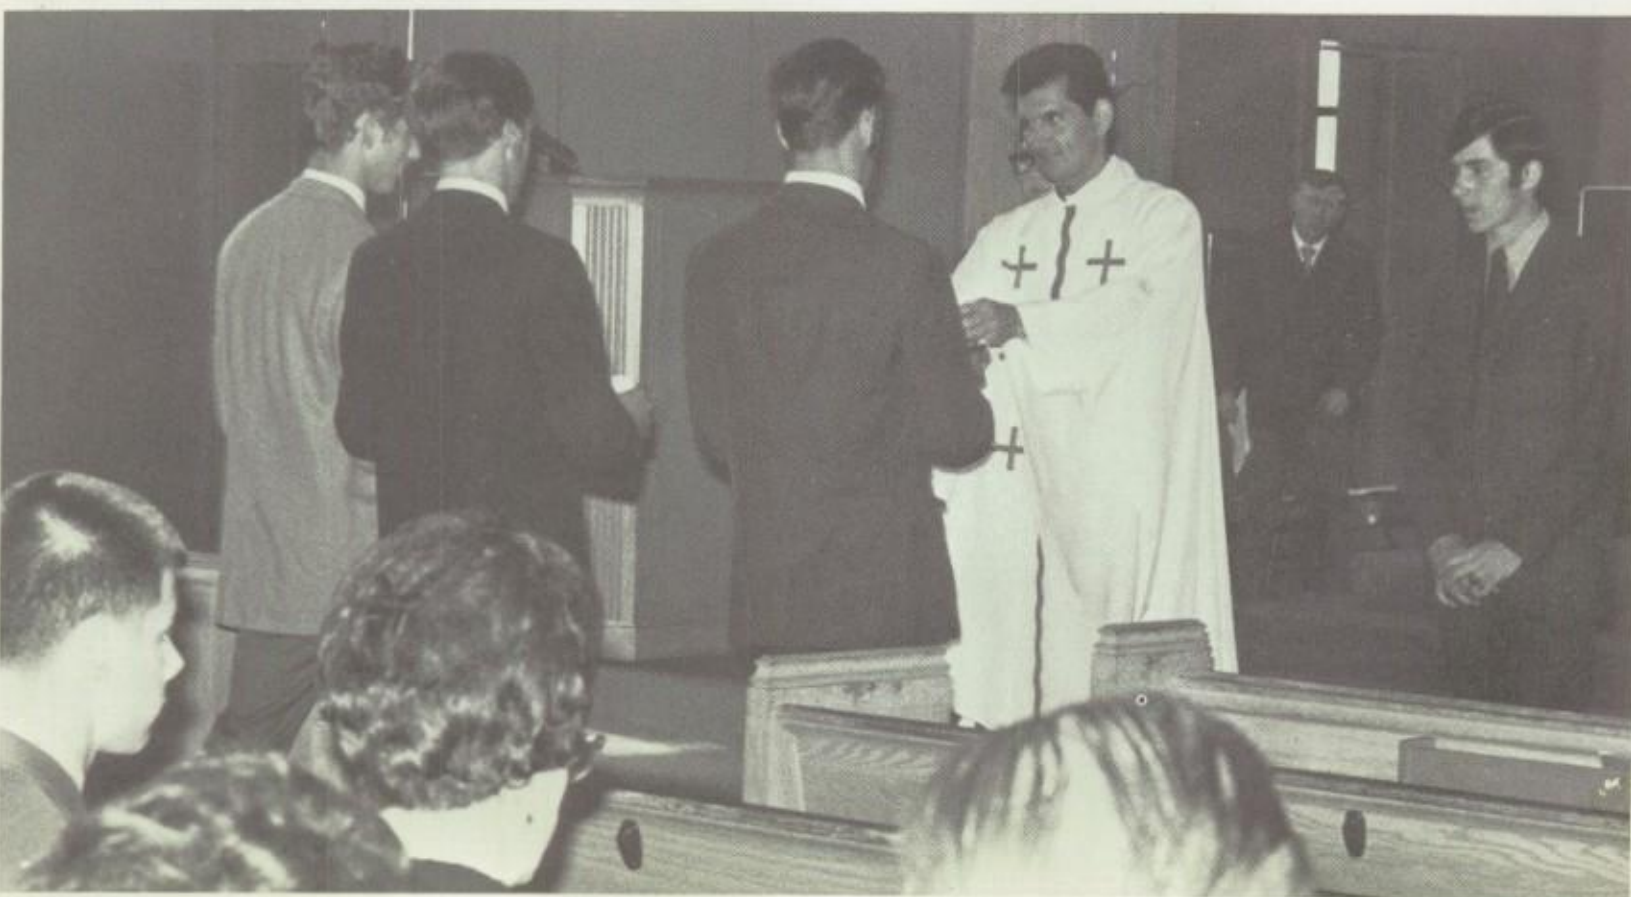

On May 31st, commencement exercises were held for the Class of 1970 at Medinah Temple. The band began the program with our National Anthem, and Mr. Cassidy, the Master of Ceremonies, introduced the salutatorian, Bob Taylor. His observant speech focused in on the attitudes of the modern student. Immediately afterwards, the diploma presentation began. Br. Unsworth was assisted in this task by Brothers May and Shannon, who were responsible for the proceedings. Mr. Cassidy appeared to be sweating slightly after reading out the 451 names. Out of this number, 16 additionally received special senior awards and 76 graduated with honors.

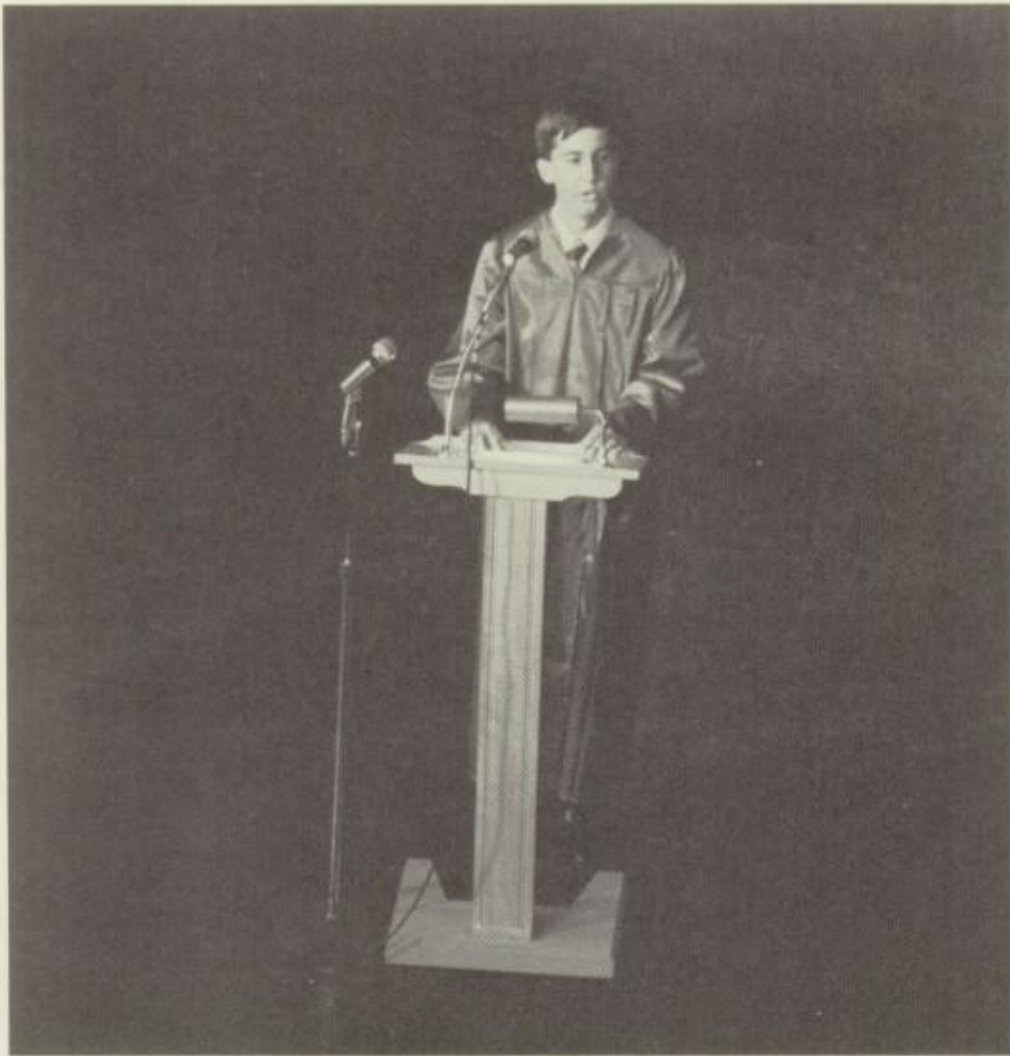

Larry Letkewicz, valedictorian, then illustrated permanent values and gave thanks to the proper parties. Br. Unsworth followed with a few short words. He praised the Class of 1970 for their fine performance at Rice and announced that they have received over a half million dollars in scholarships.

Bishop McManus, the final speaker, covered a wide range of topics. His particular stress was on violence especially in student protest. He said that violence is never justified, and went on to voice his objections to the Vietnam War and the draft. The younger generation was praised for its honesty with people and its concern for humanity. In conclusion, he asked for all those in favor of continuing Br. Rice, with the help of state aid next year to rise. The motion passed.

An impressive 93% of the graduating class of 1970 plan to attend college. The best of luck to them in their future plans, as well as to those who have chosen to pursue other vocations. They have all been well-prepared.

Valedictorian, Larry Letkewicz

The final moment of glory for the class of '70.

It was a rough year—both for the school and for the staff that tried to record its events.

Our own troubles were two in nature—dollars and deadlines. The dollars part of it came when yearbook sales slipped for the first time since Crusader began; dance funds helped us out in that area. But it took the combined effort of an eleven-man editorial staff, three experienced yearbook guides, and many staff members to get Crusader '70 through its Dec. 31, Feb. 28 and May 8 deadlines intact. Special credit should go to the ten editors who decided to put up with my erratic leadership and to our ever-patient, ever-helpful moderator, Br. Kenneth Chapman. Asst. Moderator, Br. James Coleman, and publishing company rep. Ken Nemsick also did much for this publication. Finally, one other assistant should be acknowledged: Bill Elling, the "twelfth editor," who gave more than generously of his time to nearly every section of the book.

Enough about our problems. It is the school year that this publication is concerned with—a school year of mixed emotions.

It began bittersweet, and the bitterness soon began to predominate. Dress code rules and Vietnam battlefields gave rise to antagonisms between student and administration, student and fellow student. The circumstances were often tense; the confrontations often ugly. The major incidents, misconduct over homecoming weekend and misuse of the free speech magazine, were only the biggest manifestations of an unsettled school.

But if the school was unsettled through much of the school year, it was far from inactive. Participation in sports remained high; three varsity teams (water polo, hockey, and baseball) reached Catholic League titles. The number of clubs and other groups dropped slightly, but the enthusiasm and hard work in such groups as the Oliver cast, the pep club, the dance committee, and the band was not lacking. More importantly, the ranks of Calm and Project '70 swelled; Rice involvement in the May 3 hunger walk was extensive. The peace mass of Oct. 15 and Earth Day program of April 22 also played parts in the year's events.

I've gotten the impression that many regard the class of '70 as something of a comedown from senior classes of years past. I doubt that my class led the school with unequaled skill; the confusion of the year would seem to suggest not. But we were part of a world that is very seldom sure of itself any more. The questions were many, insistent—but most often they were both necessary and sincere. No "great awakening" has taken place at Rice, but for the first time it was necessary for the yearbook to set aside space for social action as an event at the school.

Brother Rice was affected by both the bitterness and the sweetness of the 1969-70 school year. For better or worse, it is a different school for it.
